

I would like the wisconsin No Call law to remain as is. It seems that these telemarketers have no respect for people when they continue to keep calling. They call during times that are being spent with families, during meal times and sometimes later at night I feel needed. If I want to do business with those companies I would pursue them-not them pursue me. Thank you and lets keep it the way it is.